Aladdin wonders if he is ready for marriage.

Genie tells Aladdin he is proud of him.

Jasmine is dressed for the wedding.

An uninvited guest arrives.

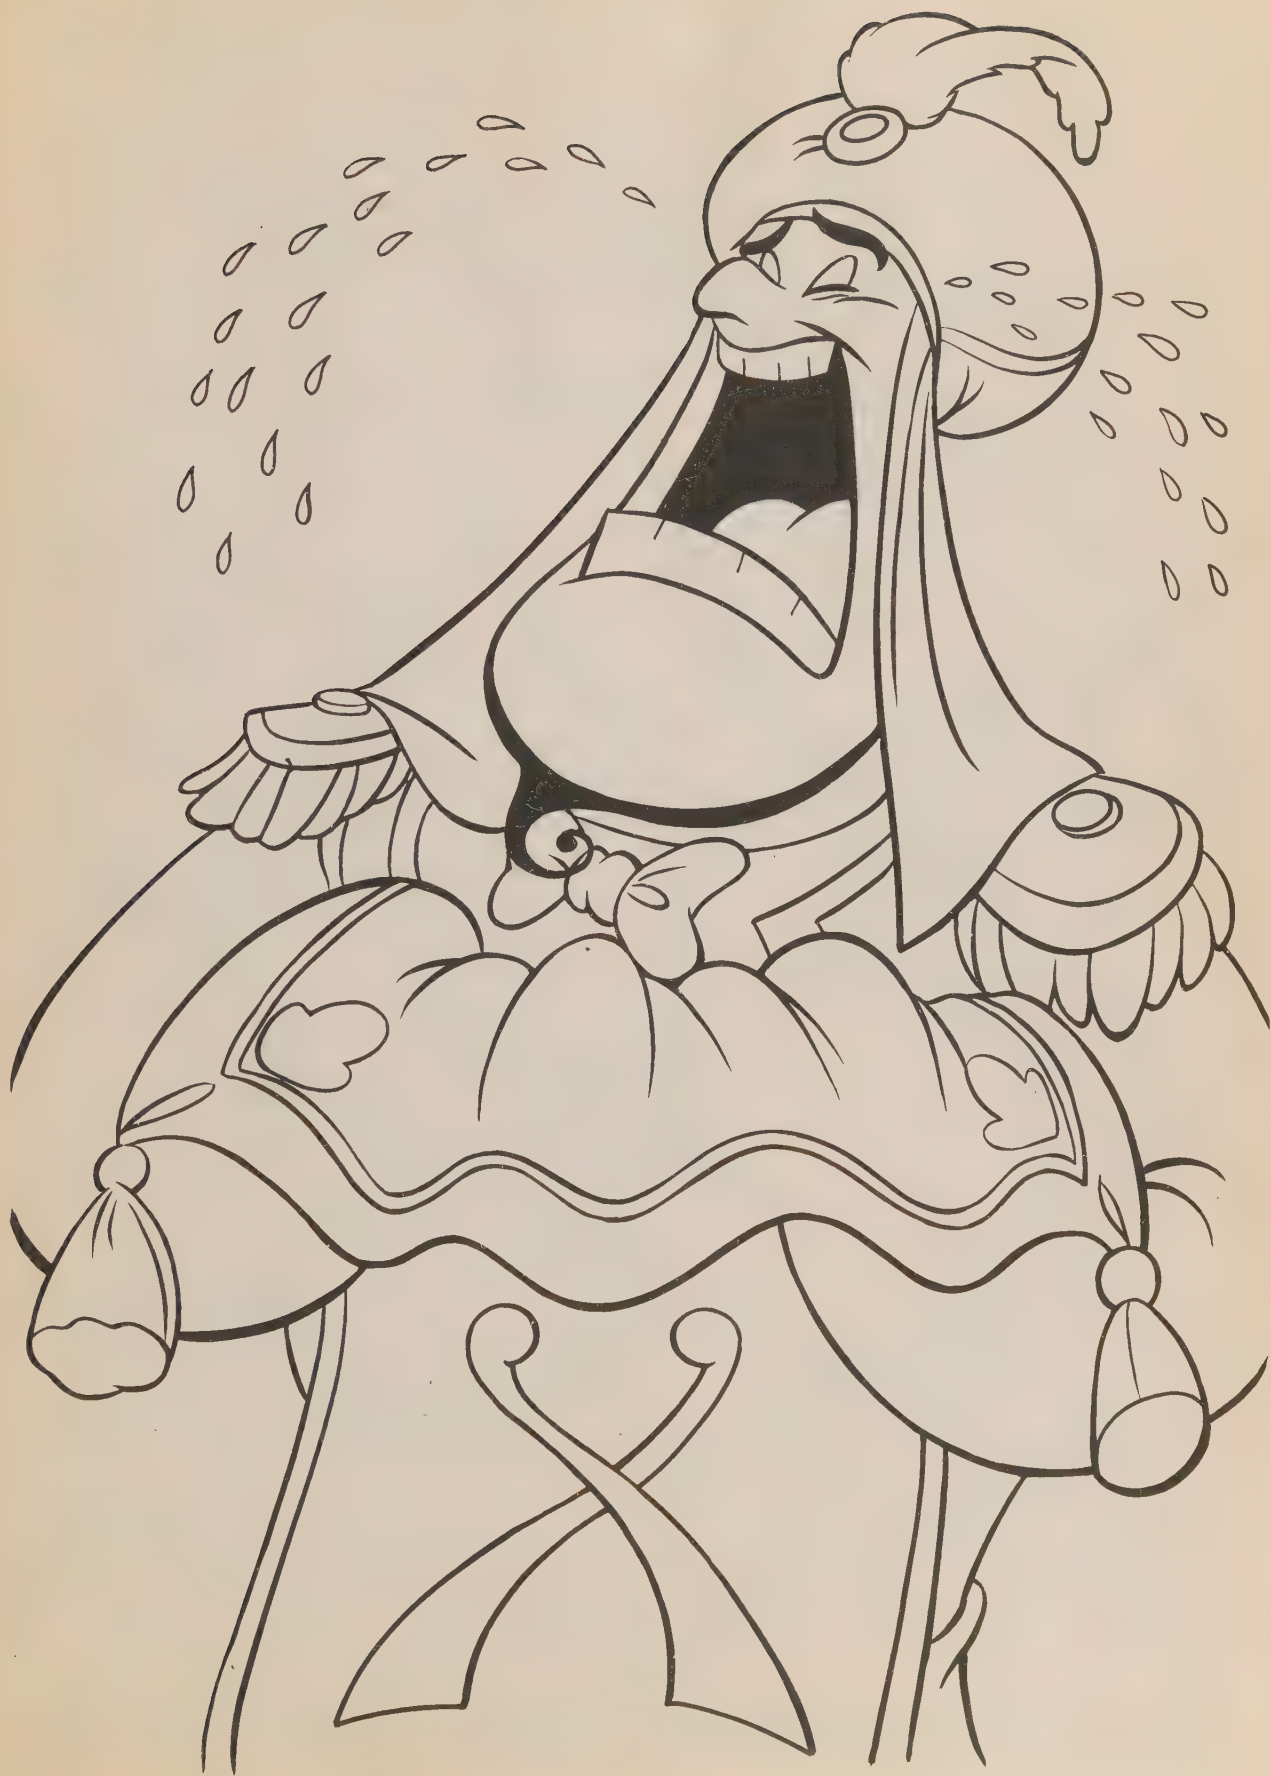

The ceremony begins.

The Forty Thieves crash the wedding and rob the guests.

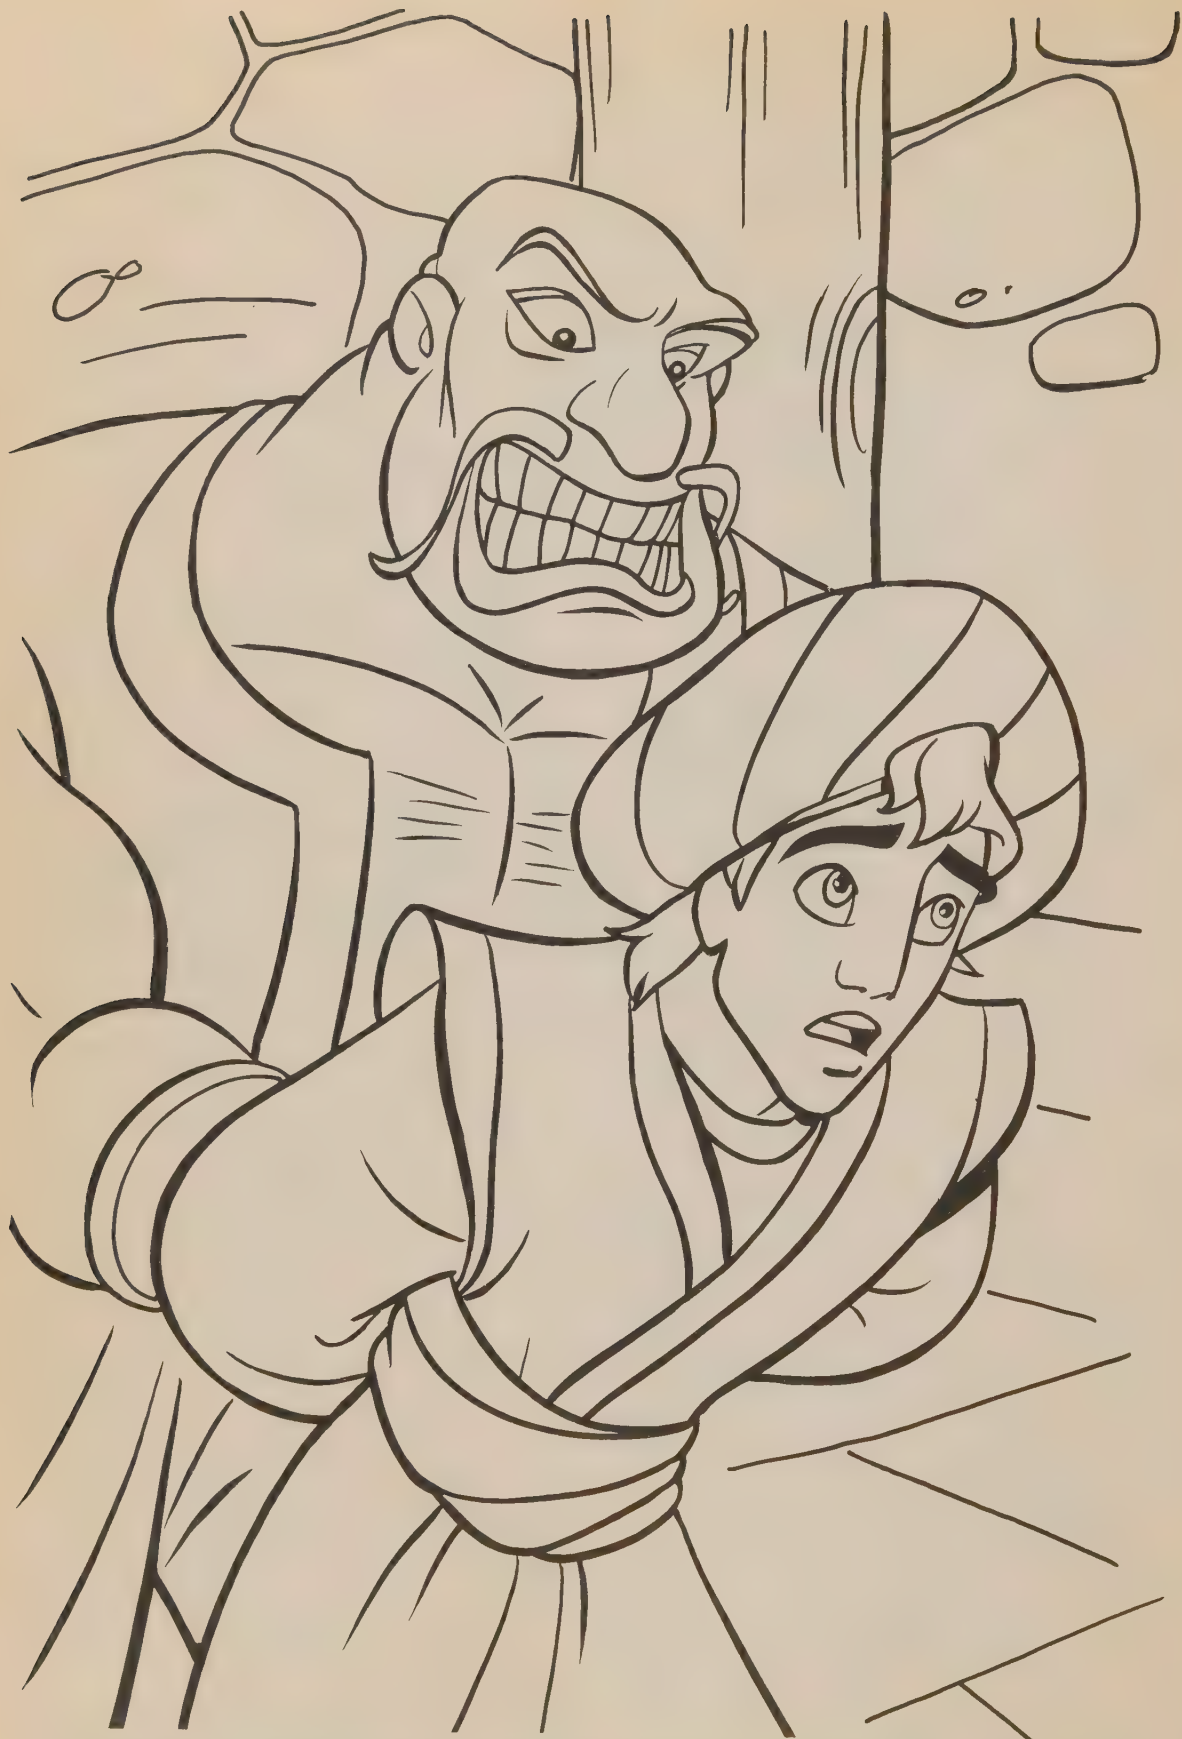

Cassim has come to steal the magical scepter.

Aladdin learns that his father is “trapped within” the world of the Forty Thieves.

Aladdin discovers that Cassim, the King of Thieves, is his father.

Cassim tells Aladdin he is searching for the “ultimate treasure”—the Hand of Midas.

Jasmine is worried about Aladdin.

Genie tries to cheer her up.

Iago helps Cassim steal the scepter.

Cassim knows that the oracle can help him find the Hand of Midas.

Sa'luk captures Cassim and the scepter.

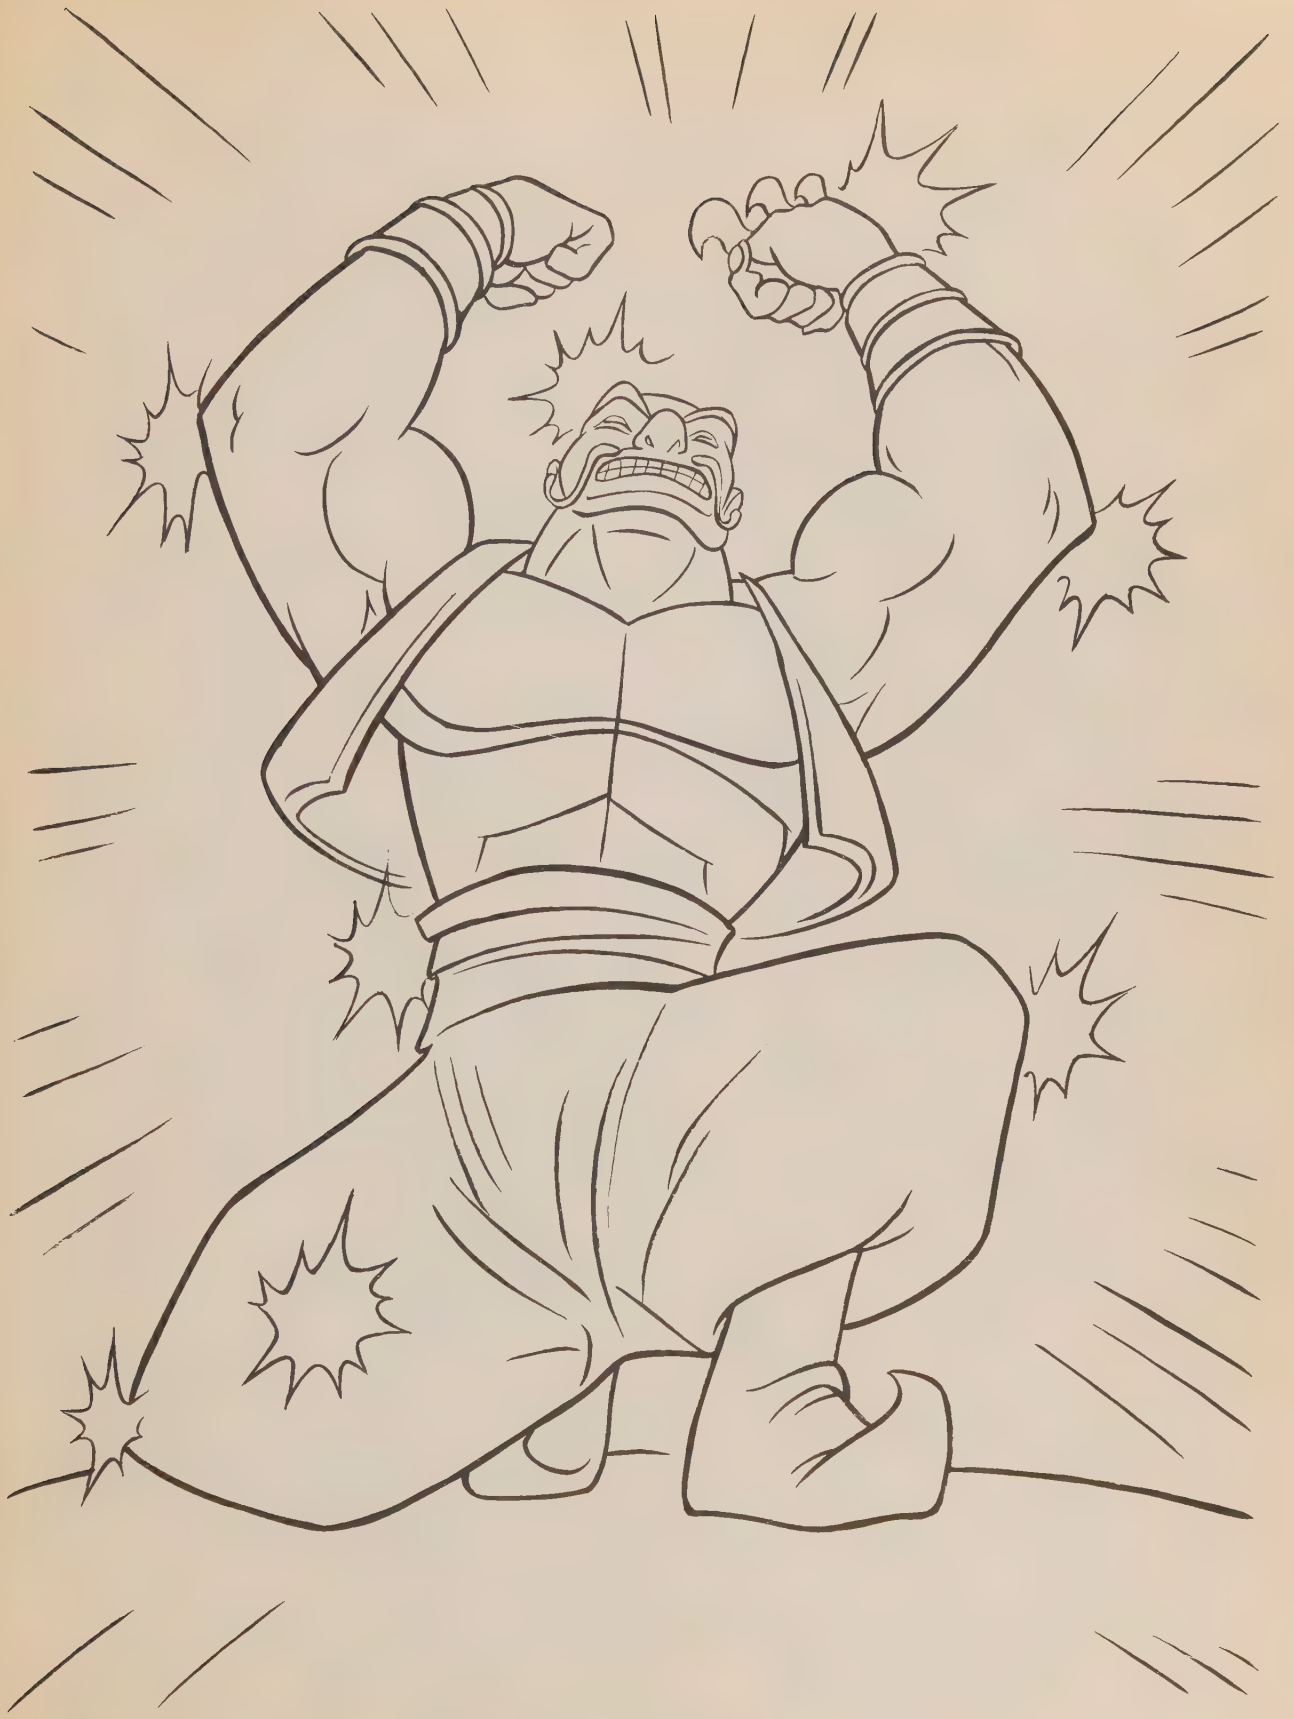

The oracle leads to where the treasure lies below the sea.

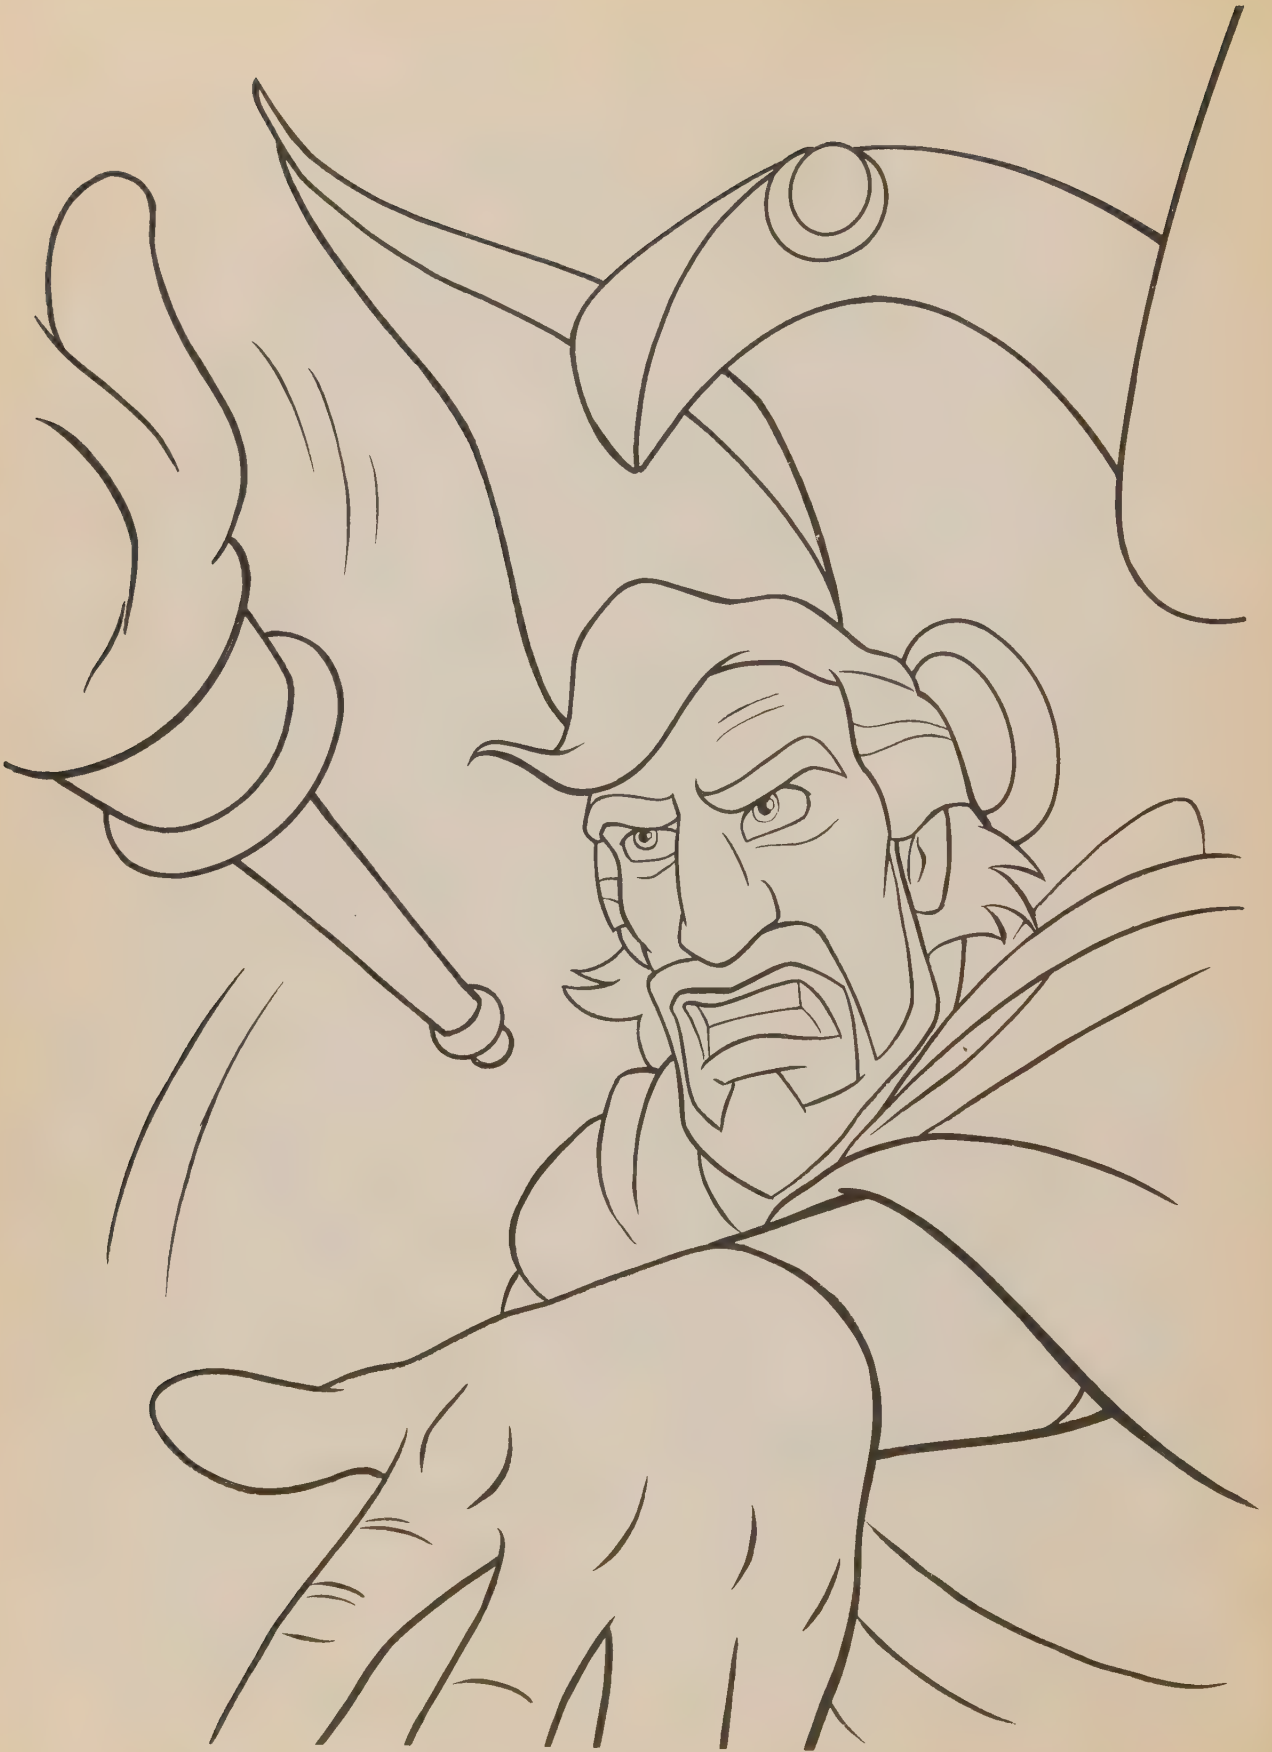

Aladdin finds the Hand of Midas.

Sa'luk steals the Hand of Midas from Aladdin.

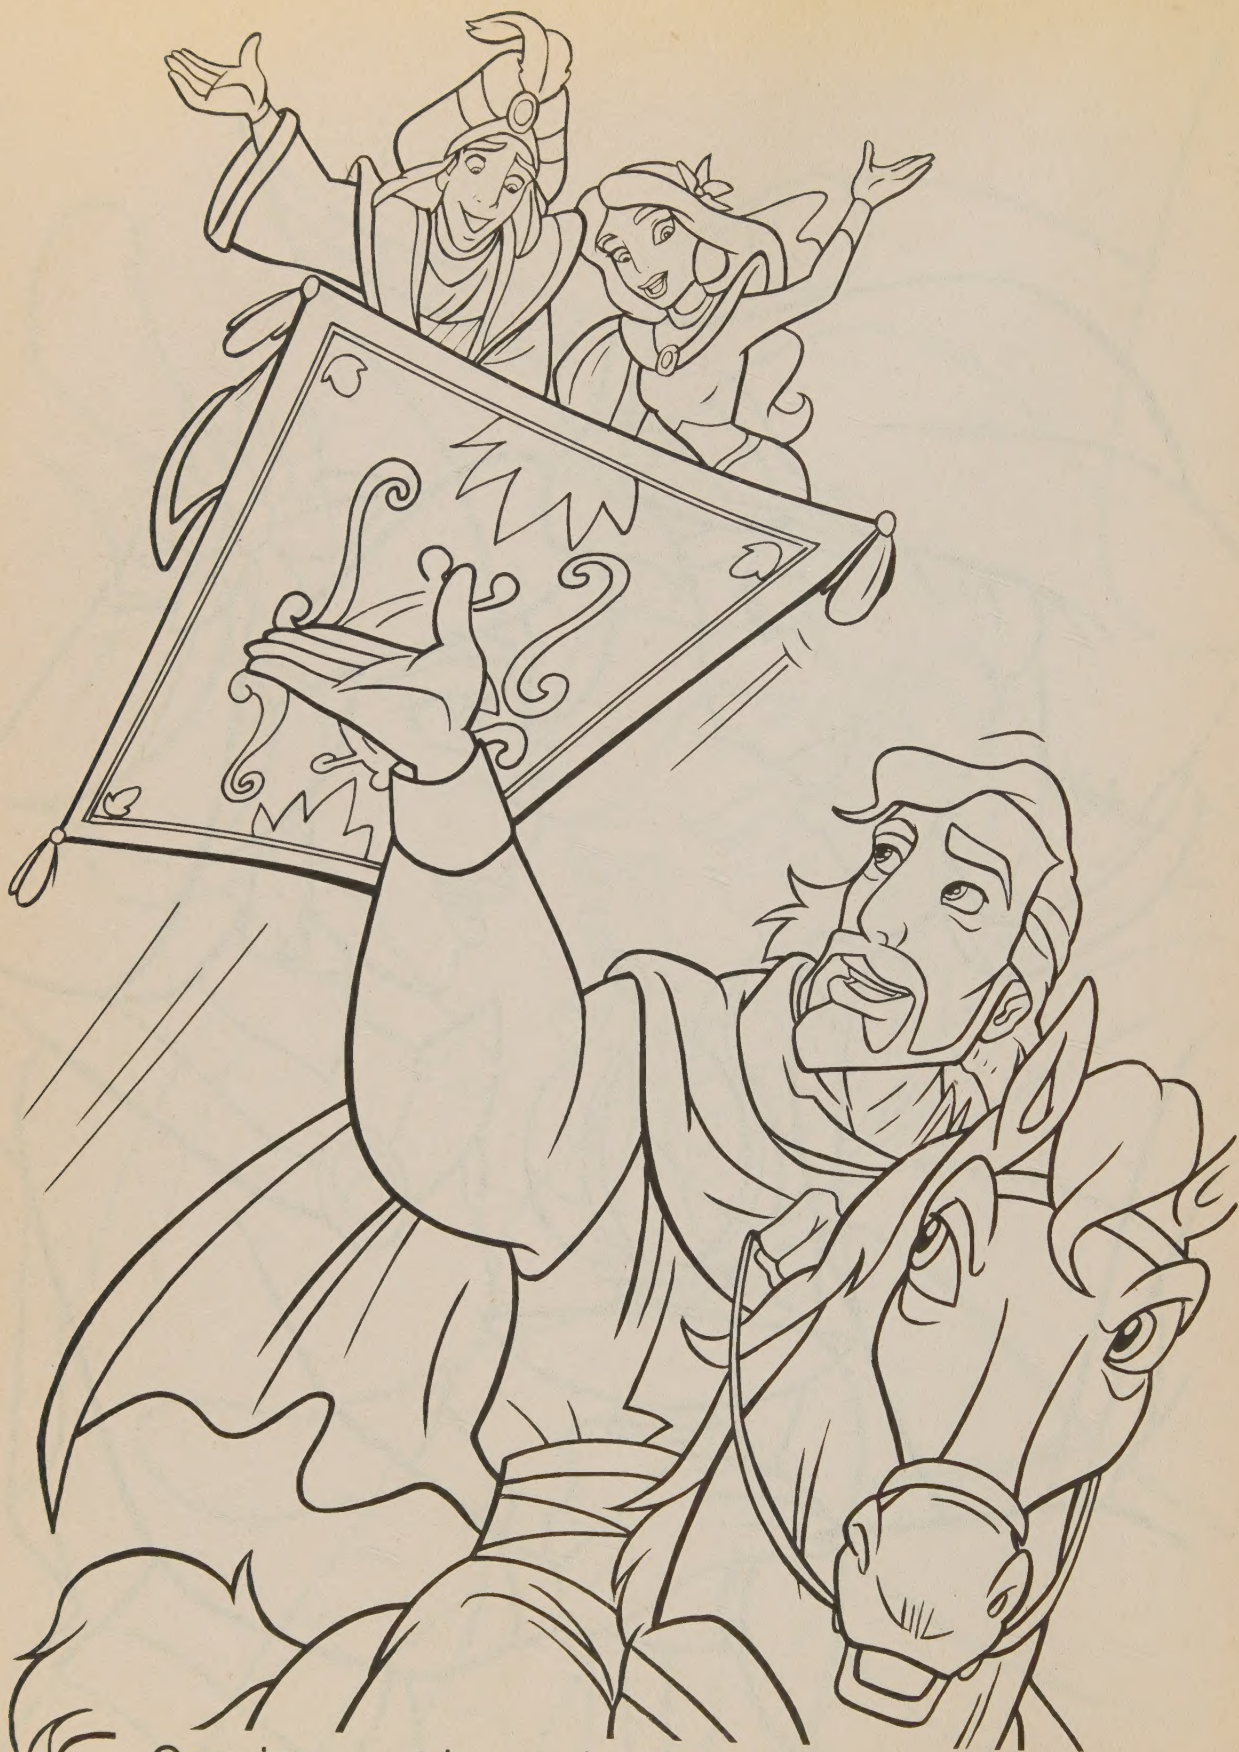

Sa'luk turns to gold.

Cassim tosses the Hand of Midas into the sea.

Aladdin and Jasmine are finally married.

Cassim must leave, but he will forever stay in Aladdin and Jasmine's hearts.
